

OVERVIEW OF THE PROGRAM

8:30 Arrival

9:00 Brief welcome

9:15 Panel I

Presentations:

“Instructing Humanity, Collecting Race: Robert Jameson and the University of Edinburgh's Natural History Museum in 1817” by Linda Anderson Burnet and Bruce Buchan

“Human remains in the history of anthropology: status, uses, and values” by Nélia Dias

“Evidential Ethics” by Martin Skrydstrup

Round-table discussion: Bruce Buchan, Linda Anderson Burnet, Nélia Dias, Richard Hölzl, Martin Skrydstrup, Malin Wilckens

Moderator: Regina F. Bendix

11:00 Coffee Break

11:30 Panel II

Presentations:

“From trash to relics: the issue of human remains’ remains” by Elisabeth Gessat Anstett

“Theory and reality” by Birgit Großkopf

Round-table discussion: Elisabeth Gessat Anstett, Rainer Brömer, Birgit Großkopf, Silke Schickanz

Moderator: Nélia Dias

13:00 Lunch Break

14:30 Panel III

Presentations:

“The case against biological thinking about social group attribution in provenance research” by Phila Msimang

“Do bones have races?” by Joanna Karolina Malinowska

Round-table discussion: Abigail Nieves Delgado, Jonatan Kurzwelly, Joanna Karolina Malinowska, Phila Msimang

Moderator: Martin Skrydstrup

16:00 Coffee Break

16:30 Brief summaries and open discussion

Brief Summaries: t.b.a.

Moderator: Regina F. Bendix

19:00 Conference Dinner for Speakers and the Research Team